FPC receives touch fingerprint sensor order of 75 MSEK

Fingerprint Cards (FPC) has received an order for its touch fingerprint sensor FPC1025 from one of its module partners. The order value is 75 MSEK and delivery will take place between March and July 2015. The sensors will be used by smartphone manufacturers in China. This order is included in the communicated revenue guidance of + 1 000 MSEK for 2015 that we restated in the Q4 2014 report on February 26th.

Jörgen Lantto, acting President and Chief Executive Officer of FPC, comments: “After the previously announced launches of Huawei Ascend Mate 7 (using FPC1020) and Oppo N3 (using FPC1021), multiple smartphone manufacturers in China have selected FPC1025 as their touch fingerprint sensor. This order confirms that FPC1025 will be integrated in smartphones to be launched progressively from Q2 2015 and onwards”.
